RENEW Question for Sharing

"I have now brought you the first fruits of the products of the soil which you, O Lord, have given to me." - DEUTERONOMY 26:10

This Scripture from the Old Testament offers two challenges. First, do you realize that everything you have and that everything you are has been given to you by God? We aren't owners of anything; instead we are merely stewards of what God has entrusted to our care. Second, do you give back to God the first and best that you have to offer - from your "first fruits"? Or do you give after you've taken care of yourself - from your leftovers? Second, do you realize that everything you have and that everything you are has been given to you by God? We aren't owners of anything, we are merely Stewards of God's gifts. Pray for a grateful and generous heart in all circumstances.

For adults and children to consider:
Do you realize God is the source of all that is God? Do you typically give from your first fruits or leftovers?

Celebrating Mary Lou Stults 92nd birthday on March 1st. She is a founding member of St. Robert Church.
